JUICE OF THE ICE.

A little girl riding past a pond only partly covered with ice, exclaimed, "Oh, paps, I know what water is—its the juice of the ice."

HE GOT LEFT.

[Chicago Times.] He was courting a Boston belle, one of the Beacon Hill aristocracy. He wished to impress upon her sesthetic, susceptible mind that he was way up in the classics, and that he was a young gentleman of culchah. Said he: "My stellar soul, the pleiades of my solar centre, you are magnificent as the constellation Hercules, as charming as Ursa Major, as regular in outline as Aquilla, and as transcendentally state-ly as the great Southern Cross, with the beautiful proportions of the Isosceles Triangle."

Said she: "Young man, you had bes square the circle, box the compass, and make a bee-line for the milky-way and the planetary Orion. When you were introduced to me, I inferred that you were a man; but I have diagnosed your mental and physical proportions and you turn out to be only an astronomical idiot with false pretensions to occult geometry, concerning which you know as little as a western cow-boy does about ball room etiquette. There is the doer, sir, get !"

So spoke the proprietor of a rough bit of a farm land in Ulster county, N. Y. to a relichunter, and "mother's" spinning wheel remained among the children and grandchildren. "My mother," writes Rev. J. W. Phelps, pastor of St. Paul's M. E. church, Chicago, has used Parker's Tonic, and wishes me to say that she has lound it more effective than anything she ever used for invigorating and strengthening the system debilitated by malaris. She desires me also especially to maution the certain-

Ever since the first household was established "fmother's" opinion has been more potent in this world than that or judge, jurist or physician. Her hand has always cooled the fewer and her voice has been filled with hope. With ach day's decline Parker's Tonic is neconamy more deservedly popular with the women who guard alike husband and children. It eradicates malarial poison from the blood, from which there is now such widespread suff ring.

Please observed Dr. Parker's Tonic is not an intoxicant. It is a combination of several ingredients, of which none singly can produce anything like its effect. For kidney, stomach and Liver troubles, it is the standard and unfailing remedy. In two sizes; 50 cents and $1 The latter the cheaper. Hiscox 2 Co., chemist, New York.

COMPOUND OXYGEN

managing editor of the Inter-Ocean of this city, writes:

THE INTER OCEAN OFFICE, CHICAGO, April 4, 1883.

Dear Sir: You ask my opinion of Compound Oxygen in regard to its efficiency as a healing remedy, and I am glad to be able to reply that have the greatest faith in it. Several years ago, when laboring under very serious trouble with my throat and lungs, at the instance of a friend in Boston, who had been similarly affected. I began the use of the Oxygen—began without much faith, but the result was such that I am prepared to recommend its use to all persons similarly affected. At the end of five months I found myself a well man, and ever since I have enjoyed better health and been more robust than ever before. It seemed in my case to strike at the root of the discusse and reform the whole system. I will recommend no patent nostrum of any kind, but I deem it a duty to the many afflicted with lung trouble in this country to recommend to them the Oxygen. Perseveringly and continuously used it works wonders.

Yours truly.

Without Him. Without Him.

"Well, wife," said Dr. E.—, as he eniered his house, which was situated in a cosy village in central New York, "I have got hack from a long and dreary ride away down amoung the mountains, and all to no purpose whatever. The messenger said the man wouldn't live till morning, when the fact is he had only an ordinary sattack of colto. If the simpletons had only had sense enough to put a BENSON'S CAPCINE POBOUS PLASIER on his stomach he would have been all right in an hour or two, But some folks are slow to learn," added the old physician; awallowing the cup of steaming tea which his wife had just poured for him.

Doctor E—was right, yet people do learn, even though slolwy. The rapidly increasing use of Benson's plaster proves this beyond question, and the good doctors are certain to be saved much of their needless toil. HARPER'S BAZAR.

Harper's Bazar is at once the most brilliant and useful Household Journal in existence. It is the acknowledged arbiter of fashion in this country. Its fashion plates are the newest and most stylish; and its pattern sheet supplements and economic suggestions alone are worth many times the cost of subscription. Its illustrations of art needlework are from the best sources. Its literary and artistic merits are of the highest order. Its stories, poems and essays are by the first American and European authors. Its choice art pictures would fill portfolios, and its humorous cuts are the most amusing to be found in any journal in America. A host of brilliant novelities are promised for 1884.
